63 LOTS AND 2 RESERVES

Some of these buildings are used as dormitories for students and faculty. Many of the best ones have been destroyed since they were built, because they were not well constructed and became unsafe.

At this present time we are trying to find ways and means to build temporary houses to be housed on the campus, so that we may have room enough to accommodate all the students who have registered.

During all the conversations between Mr. and Mrs. HORNIGOLD and Mr. T. C. COOPER, during the time that Mr. HORNGOLD was in the State of California, he was continually referring to his personal relationship, and his association with the Ford Motor Company. The fact that he had no permanent home or residence in California was overlooked.
